Disclaimer

Important Notice: Legal Classification & Risk Disclosure

Heaven Token is a utility-based digital token created to support access, incentives, and participation within the Heaven Eco Hub ecosystem alongside BNB, BTC & USDT, including but not limited to: Heaven Wallet, Heaven Soul Mates app, Heaven Dreams donation platform, and affiliated products.

Heaven Token does not represent a share, security, or ownership interest in Bodhisla Ltd or any related entity. It does not grant rights to dividends, profits, or residual assets, and should not be considered an investment product.

The purpose of Heaven Token is strictly functional: to facilitate user engagement, community interaction, access to services, and reward-based participation across our digital platforms.

This token has not been registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, the UK Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, the EU MiCA Regulation, the Securities and Futures Act (Singapore), the CNMV regulation (Spain), or any other jurisdiction's financial securities legislation. It is not offered as a financial instrument and is not intended for speculative trading or financial return. No guarantees of future value, appreciation, or income are made or implied. Users and participants should not purchase Heaven Token with the expectation of profit, nor as a means of speculative investment.

Heaven Token and all related services are intended for use by individuals who understand the functional nature of utility tokens and accept the associated risks, including but not limited to: price volatility, smart contract risk, and regulatory changes.

Purchasers are responsible for complying with their local laws and regulations before acquiring or using Heaven Token. This product is not intended for distribution in jurisdictions where such use would violate local laws.

Bodhisla Ltd does not act as a financial advisor or broker. Users are encouraged to seek independent legal and financial advice before participating.

By acquiring or using Heaven Token, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this disclaimer and agree to the terms of use outlined in the official documentation.

Those who give shall receive — but not as a financial promise.

Heaven Token – Global Use Utility Asset

Important Notice: Classification, Utility, and Regulatory Position

Heaven Token is a utility-based digital asset used across the Heaven Eco Hub ecosystem, including products such as Heaven Wallet, Heaven Soul Mates, and Heaven Dreams. It is not an investment product or security, and it confers no ownership, dividends, or governance rights.

Heaven Token:

- Is not owned by a single person or entity.
- Is issued through a decentralized product-access structure operated by multiple independent companies.
- Does not promise profit, appreciation, or financial return to token holders.
- Is designed purely for utility, such as: access to digital services, donation enhancements, and reward incentives.

The token has no fixed or guaranteed value and is subject to free-market fluctuation. Its existence supports platform functionality, not speculative investment.

Regulatory Basis:

Following established guidance from global regulators, including the SEC and CFTC:

- Heaven Token does not meet the Howey Test criteria for securities as it is a utility token.
- It is more aligned with commodity-like digital assets such as Bitcoin and post-ICO Ethereum.
- It is excluded from financial products under most jurisdictions due to its non-investment, product-use nature.

Risk Factors:

- Volatility: Prices may rise or fall with market conditions.
- No Central Promoter: The token is not backed by a company promise or institutional guarantees.
- No Rights or Claims: Token holders do not own shares, receive dividends, or participate in business decisions
